

What classes should you take?

Advisors suggest students take a balance of courses each semester to include major, minor, and general education requirements. Take time to review the Undergraduate Bulletin at <http://www.stedwards.edu/dasx/undergradbull.htm>. Pay special attention to the general education requirements, the major requirements, and the minor requirements sections.

Remember, not all courses are offered every semester or every year. Each semester the University publishes the courses available online at <http://www.stedwards.edu/regist/crsinfo.htm>.
